PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We are a Catholic Christian community striving to live as disciples of Jesus Christ. Nourished by the Eucharist and enlightened by the Word of God, our Pastor, Parish Staff and Parishioners welcome all. With faith in His Gospel, we are called to love as Jesus loves and, therefore, serve our community through the sharing of time, talents and treasure to support programs of evangelization and social justice. Our commitment encompasses serving the youth through education, sports and formation. We seek to develop services for the elderly and homebound. Finally, we wish to challenge and sustain all parishioners through spiritual and educational activities.

A Lenten Devotion

No Matter How Inadequate you may feel, you can always look to Me for help. You don't need to go to a special place or assume a certain posture to seek My Face. Nor do you need to elegant language or work to win My favor. I always look favorably on you because I see you clothed in My righteousness. I am alive in you, and I understand your thoughts perfectly. So a simple glance at Me - made in faith - is enough to connect you to My help.

You tend to waste energy trying to determine whether your resources are adequate for the day. You keep checking your "power gauge" instead of looking to Me for My provisions. How much better to simply acknowledge your insufficiency when you awaken! This frees you to rely on My boundless sufficiency. If you stay in touch with Me, I will place enough Power at your disposal to meet your needs as they arise. Keep turning toward Me, your ever—present Help, and your strength will be equal to the demands of your day.

Taken from "Jesus Always"
Written by Sarah Young

From the Music Director

All Glory, Laud and Honor

Born around 760 AD into a family of nobility, St. Theodulph fled Spain when it was conquered by Moors and became the abbot of a monastery in Florence. As one of the most learned men of that age, Charlemagne appoints him Bishop of Orleans, where he creates schools for the people. And as ambassador to Rome, he even revises the text of the Bible! But when Charlemagne's son, Louis the Pious, becomes emperor, he accuses Theodulph of conspiring against the throne, and imprisons him.

It was customary at this time for the clergy and choir to start the processional hymn in the town square and march to the church. While in prison, Theodulph wrote a processional hymn for Palm Sunday: Gloria, laus et honor tibi sit, rex Christe redemptor, which we sing as "All Glory, Laud and Honor." Translator John Mason Neale notes that up until the 17th century, the following verse was usually sung: Be Thou, O Lord, the Rider, And we the little ass, That to God's holy city Together we may pass. We won't be singing that verse today...

Word of Life

“There is an everyday heroism, made up of gestures of sharing, big or small, which build up an authentic culture of life...Part of this daily heroism is also the silent but effective and eloquent witness of all those ‘brave mothers who devote themselves to their own family without reserve, who suffer in giving birth to their children and who are ready to make an effort, to face any sacrifice, in order to pass on to them the best of themselves’... We thank you, heroic mothers, for your invincible love! We thank you for your intrepid trust in God and in his love. We thank you for the sacrifice of your life.”

Annual Catholic Appeal

2024

Each year St. Kevin and the Diocese of Brooklyn engage in the Annual Catholic Appeal which supports Catholic programs throughout Brooklyn and Queens and affects the lives of countless individuals and families living in our neighborhoods in addition to benefiting our parish. The Annual Catholic Appeal makes possible those programs that no one parish can do alone. As followers of Jesus here at St. Kevin we understand our responsibility to the Diocese which unites us together with the entire Catholic Community as the one body of Christ.

When one part of the body does not participate, the entire body suffers and makes it harder to function. Likewise, your participation in this Appeal over and above your regular Sunday offering will determine the ability of St. Kevin to faithfully support the mission of Christ while also providing the needed support we receive as one parish which is part of the larger Catholic Church.

Please join us to respond as the Church of Christ called to Communion, Participation, & Mission in Brooklyn and Queens through a pledge to the Annual Catholic Appeal today AnnualCatholicAppeal.org or text DONATE to 917-336-1255
