PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We are a Catholic Christian community striving to live as disciples of Jesus Christ. Nourished by the Eucharist and enlightened by the Word of God, our Pastor, Parish Staff and Parishioners welcome all. With faith in His Gospel, we are called to love as Jesus loves and, therefore, serve our community through the sharing of time, talents and treasure to support programs of evangelization and social justice. Our commitment encompasses serving the youth through education, sports and formation. We seek to develop services for the elderly and homebound. Finally, we wish to challenge and sustain all parishioners through spiritual and educational activities.

A Mother's Day Prayer

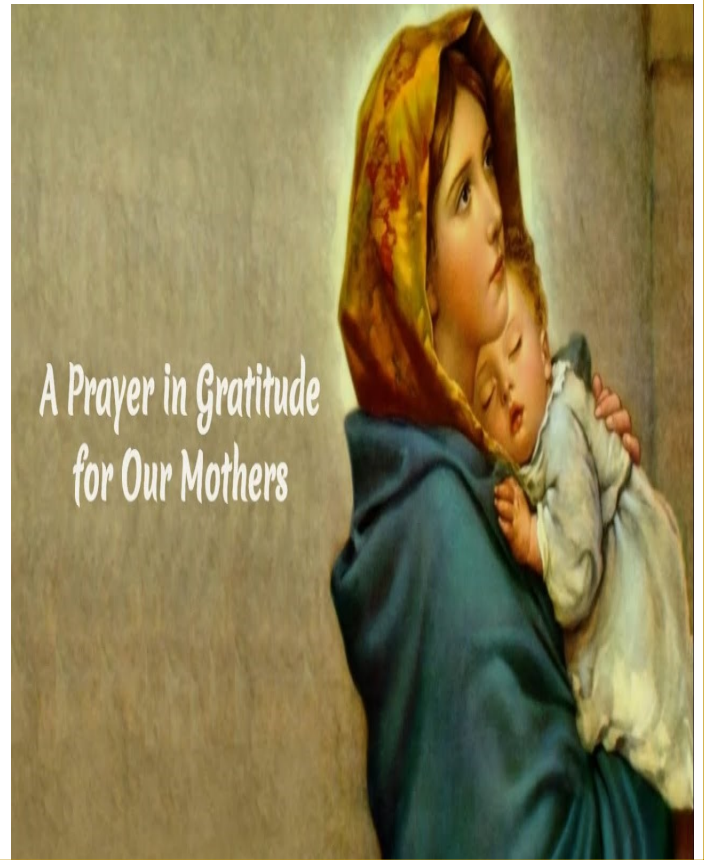

Heavenly Father, I lift up to you today my mother and all mothers.

Bless them with strength to continue to care for their children, with the same bold, selflessness

Mary showed Jesus.

Help my mother and all mothers feel our gratitude and truly know their impact. May we honor them today and on all days as vessels of Your love. In Your name I pray.

Amen.

From the Music Director

Happy Mother's Day!

Why not present the woman you want to honor with a gift of song? Here are a few possibilities...

Boyz II Men sing "A Song for Mama" on the Soul Food soundtrack. The Spice Girls acknowledge "Mama" has become their friend. Taylor Swift realizes she had "The Best Day" with her mom. The Backstreet Boys consider their mom "The Perfect Fan." And Donny Osmond sings "Mother of Mine."

Or, Brad Paisley sings "She's Everything" about the mother of his children. Expectant mothers can be part of what's to be as "The Story Goes On" from the musical Baby. Even though Minnie's Boys flopped on Broadway, it gave us "Mama, A Rainbow;" recorded by both Steve Lawrence and Jim Neighbors and perfect for an older mother. And if you're missing your mother, Celine Dion's "Goodbyes" may ease your sense of loss.

Better yet, find the karaoke track online of any song you want, and sing for her! Whether it's good or not doesn't matter, she'll act like it's the best thing she's ever heard! Because that's what moms do!

Word of Life

‘Radical solidarity compels us to come alongside vulnerable mothers in profound friendship, compassion, and support for both them and their preborn children. It requires us to address the fundamental challenges that lead an expectant mother to believe she is unable to welcome the child God has entrusted to her. We must do all we can to provide mothers, children and families with the support they need to flourish. This cannot be accomplished by laws or policy alone, but requires the continual transformation of our own hearts, recognizing in every person the face of Christ, and placing their needs before their own.

USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities
“Radical Solidarity”

Celebrating the Feast of
Our Lady Mother of Mercy

The members of the Congregation of the Daughters of Mary Mother of Mercy (DMMM) are excited to celebrate their first Feast Day at St. Kevin's Parish. DMMM sisters celebrate the feast of Our Lady Mother of Mercy, The Merciful Mother of God on two days—the Saturday preceding the 1st Sunday in May (Feast Day) and the 1st Sunday in May (Mercy Day). The DMMM sisters founded by Bishop Anthony Gogo Nwedo, CSSp in Nigeria, bear witness to the Mercy of God, by following the footsteps of Christ The Merciful Savior and Mary our Mother of Mercy. This Mercy is expressed as compassion, forgiveness and kindness and extended to the poor (spiritually and materially) and the needy by teaching and working among children, the youth and the elderly in schools, parishes, hospitals, private homes, group homes and nursing homes. Sr. M. Julia Mbata and Sr. M. Beatrice Chukwumeie residing at St. Kevin's Convent, together with their Regional superior, Sr. M. Providentia Igboelusi and some of their sisters will Celebrate the 2024 feast in the company of St. Kevin's Senior Club on May 14, 2024. We look forward to meeting with and interacting with all the members of this noble club. We are grateful to Frs. Marc, Jeff, and Jerry as well as Sam Perillo and Mike McGrath for this wonderful opportunity. We will offer the Sanctuary Lamps of the week for the Intentions of all St. Kevin's Priests and Parishioners

- To all attending mass, a gentle remind to the following:
- Please turn off or silence your cell phones before entering church and during mass.
 - Please refrain from sending and receiving text messages and emails while in church.
 - Please be considerate and mindful to those sitting in a wheelchair.
 - Please reserve the extended pew in front of the altar for the disabled or those with a walker.
 - Please refrain from bringing food & drink into the church.

Thank you so much for your consideration and kindness.

If you are new to St. Kevin's Church please introduce yourself to one of our Parish Priests or Deacon after mass. We invite you to stop at the rectory office to meet the staff and register as a parishioner of St. Kevin and to visit our website:

The Catholic Steward

Stewardship Education and Reflections on the Weekly Mass Readings

We often cite Jesus' quote from today's Gospel of Mark: "Go into the whole world and proclaim the gospel to every creature." This was not a suggestion from the Lord. It was quite frankly a command, and it is one which still holds for each of us. Being an evangelist, being a disciple, being a steward is not a matter of choice for those of us who are Catholic and Christian. It is something the Lord expects of us.

Often, we may like to spend time debating how to do that, but that does not lessen the fact that it is something we are supposed to do. We need to acknowledge that even the original Apostles and followers of Jesus did not do that immediately. We learn that they stayed in Jerusalem for some time, and it seemed to be only when the Church and its followers were persecuted that they began to reach out and truly share the "Good News."

Once Christians accepted that charge from the Lord, they did indeed take the Word of God to all corners of the earth. Look at the Church today. It is incredible how this Church has grown from one Man/God and a small group into what it is today. That does not, however, get us "off the hook."

As much as we may argue about how to carry out this command from Jesus, the fact remains that our very lives need to stand as a representation of what it means to be a Christian, what it means to "love one another," what it means to live and to work as a disciple of Christ.

A Note from the Pastor

Last Saturday St. Kevin's had the opportunity to celebrate with the Communion Class of 2024 their first reception of the Eucharist. It was a beautiful day that marked an important step in their faith journey. With the help of their parents, catechists, and this community they have grown in their relationship and friendship with Jesus. The Children were well prepared and excited about this special moment, and as I administered communion, I was so proud of each of them.

As I watched each of them receive the Body and Blood of Jesus in the Eucharist, I was reminded that this simple action makes them active members of the Church of today. However, because of their age, they are still dependent on us adults to help them and support their life of faith. I ask for your help to encourage all the families of St. Kevin Parish to come and worship here with their children. Please invite your neighbors to our communion and when they come, please welcome them by introducing yourself and asking them their name. When we know each other's names, we are no longer strangers, and in Church we become brothers and sisters in Christ.

Now that our Religious Education Program is coming to an end for this year, I want to take this opportunity to thank all the catechists who dedicated their time and talent of teaching the children of the parish. I want to especially acknowledge Mrs. Rosaria Surace for all her dedication and work to bring the Catholic Faith to this part of Auburndale, Flushing. I thank her for her many years of working in Religious Education and wish her well as she retires from this current role as coordinator of the parish program.

Last week I had the good fortune to hire Ms. Amora Laucella as our New Director of Religious Education. Ms. Laucella comes with a graduate background in Theology and eight years of experience working and administering programs in Religious Education. Know that as we move into the Summer, we will be planning for the next pastoral year, coming this September. Please stay tuned for great things to come and if you are still in need of registering your child for the parish Religious Education Program, please call the main office or send an email to begin the process as soon as possible.
